

	Total students	Mandatory testing population	Mandatory weekly tests	Percent of undergrads living off campus	Mandatory testing of students in fraternities or sororities	Total tests
University of Michigan	48,090 (in Ann Arbor)	Only undergrads	Only those living in residence halls or who comes to campus for classes or activities	69%	No	104,158 (since March 8)
Michigan State University	49,695	Only undergrads	Only those living on campus, coming to campus for in-person coursework, or working on campus	61%	No	14,023 (since July 27)
University of Indiana	42,552 (in Bloomington, with 90,090 at all campuses)	All students, faculty, and staff	Anyone living near an IU campus	67%	Yes	218,126 (since Aug 25)
University of Illinois	52,331	All students, faculty, and staff	Anyone living on-campus or residing off-campus in Champaign, Urbana, or Savoy	50%	Yes	1,046,201 (since July 6)
Ohio State University	61,369 (in Columbus)	Undergraduate, graduate, and professional students	Anyone living on- or off-campus, unless they verify that they do not live near Ohio State's campus	67%	Yes	275,374 (since August 14)